HISTORY

- The Department of English Language and Literature was established in 2011 in accordance with Article no. 7/d.2 of Higher Education Law no. 2547, changed under Law no. 28.
- The department started to provide education and training as of 2019-2020 academic year following the approval of Higher Education Council.

DURATION AND POINT TYPE

- Training period of the Department of Western Languages and Literatures Preparation (1 year) + 4 years. Our department accept students based on their YKS Language point type.

ABOUT OUR DEPARTMENT

- The Department of Western Literature and Literature was established in order to gain knowledge about the various aspects of social life such as literature, history, art, philosophy specific to the West and primarily English culture to the students at the level of undergraduate program. The aim is to acquire knowledge about classical and contemporary critical theories while equipping their students with literary and cultural traditions and to interpret and evaluate life and the society in which they live in a comparative way.

ABOUT OUR DEPARTMENT

- In addition to the social, cultural and literary awareness they will have, students will have the opportunity to acquire and develop listening, speaking, reading and writing skills known as the four basic language skills, thanks to the preparatory program in the department. Students passing the Preparatory Exemption Exam are entitled to begin their first year of education.

ABOUT OUR DEPARTMENT

- The students of our department gain the ability to distinguish the reflection of social, philosophical, historical and psychological backgrounds which constitute the works, to research and to express their own findings both verbally and in writing, while exploring the works of poetry, prose, novel and theater within the framework of literary theories. In addition to literary courses, linguistics courses are available in our department and our students can have detailed information about English language. It is also encouraged that students learn the methods of scientific research and work in the framework of the research techniques offered in the curriculum and the studies and presentations that students have made during undergraduate education and that they can produce works in the light of these achievements.

OUR VISION

- The vision of the Department of Western Languages and Literature is to provide its students with education which will make them individuals who adopt a life-long learning principle and who are able to understand the necessity for critical and reflective thinking in terms of literature and culture. Our department also aims to become a qualified department which will operate internationally and shape the future of our country with scholars it produced.

OUR MISSION

- The mission of the Department of Western Languages and Literature is to attain a high-level academic success by means of its modern educational approaches; mainly through providing its students with education which will make them individuals who are able to make original and comperative studies through the qualifications they have got in the department, and who have in-depth knowledge about Western culture in general and English language and culture in particular.

FIELDS OF STUDY

- Those graduates of the Department of Western Languages and Literature who would like to carry on their academic development could study in MA programs concentrating on English Literature, American Literature, Western cultures, linguistics, comparative literature, cultural studies, arts, pedagogy, sociology and communications.

FIELDS OF STUDY

- Our graduates can be teachers in MoNE by taking pedagogical formation from the relevant faculties such as lecturers, interpreters and public officials and tourism and finance. In addition, our students who graduate from our department have the opportunity to continue their academic studies with their graduation in high school and doctorate education in related departments.
